Quality plumbing in Norfolk does not have to come with an eye-watering price tag. Newman's Plumbing Service and Repair has built its entire business on the principle of delivering professional plumbing without the professional price, and has been doing so since 1994. Newman's charges up to 50% less than the major chain plumbing companies that operate in the Norfolk area. The company offers pricing by the job or by the hour, giving customers flexibility and making it easier to budget for both planned upgrades and unexpected repairs. Quotes are given upfront and clearly explained, with no Plumber Norfolk VA hidden charges appearing on the final invoice. Despite the competitive pricing, Newman's does not cut corners on quality or customer protection. Every job is backed by a lifetime guarantee on workmanship, which means that if anything the company installs or repairs develops a problem due to the workmanship, Newman's will return and fix it at no charge. That commitment is backed by more than 30 years of delivering on the promise.
