

At Columbia, TN's Duck River Estates, homeowners appreciate the thoughtfully managed manufactured home community famous for its mix of comfort and affordability.) Included within UMH Properties, Inc., this exceptional manufactured home property demonstrates the company's commitment to *quality homes* and *strong communities*. With a focus on turn-key ready manufactured homes in addition to rental options, Duck River Estates represents the modern side of *manufactured home living* in Tennessee.

# A Range of Housing: Rentals and Homes for Sale

A standout feature of Duck River Estates is the ability to choose between homes for sale and rental properties. Turn-key ready manufactured homes are featured in the community, kept up to HUD standards for energy efficiency and sturdiness guaranteeing energy efficiency and structural integrity. There's a home for every need, from compact to larger sqft options, perfectly meeting needs for both cozy mobile home space and larger family-ready homes.

For a variety of tenants, renting remains a top consideration, for those undergoing transitions or desiring flexibility. Duck River Estates' rented homes, including apartments and mobile homes provide refreshed interiors, private outdoor space, and dedicated parking—amenities that set the rentals apart from ordinary apartment living. These rentals deliver spaciousness beyond typical Columbia apartments, allowing for increased privacy and comfort in a secure setting.

# Investing and Securing a Mortgage at Duck River Estates

If your goal is to join Columbia's real estate market, Duck River Estates makes the journey simple with UMH's home sales and financing guidance. UMH Properties guides homebuyers through mortgage choices, application processes, and cultivates lasting housing stability by reducing ownership obstacles.

These services focus on first-time buyers, retirees looking to downsize, and working families searching for quality TN homes in scenic locations. Getting a home in Duck River Estates goes beyond cost savings—security and community connection shine as the core of UMH's *real estate* commitment.

# Making Duck River Estates Your Next Home

Home-seekers exploring Columbia will find Duck River Estates to be an appealing, well-rounded choice. Affordable and quality housing are simpler to find here, as UMH Properties combines experience and hands-on management to create a residential environment blending privacy, community, and comfort.

Duck River Estates outshines Columbia's *communities* by offering flexible choices—turn-key ready manufactured homes for sale or attractive rental apartments—and a stable, well-managed neighborhood supported by UMH's longstanding reputation.

# River Estates Living: Where Nature and Neighbors Thrive Together

Residents of Duck River Estates enjoy unique access to the renowned Duck River—a vital Tennessee waterway famed for beauty and ecological diversity. River Estates places like this blend tranquility with practical amenities. The river's presence enhances life through outdoor pursuits and shared events, cultivating a sense of togetherness and calm.

UMH's stewardship ensures the conservation of the natural setting, integrating it fully into resident life to Duck River Estates community homes boost long-term value for all homeowners and renters.

# UMH Properties: Stability and Trust for Residents

Because UMH Properties is NYSE-listed, every resident receives more than real estate—they enjoy consistent standards, transparent management, and peace of mind. Residents of Duck River Estates enjoy this confidence and trust, backed up daily by UMH's thorough on-site management and enduring housing standards.

For renters, buyers, and investors alike in Columbia, this level of oversight creates unmatched assurance. If you're searching for a rental apartment, affordable mobile home, or secure mortgage, Duck River Estates' portfolio delivers—reliably under one community.

---

Duck River Estates represents the new era of **manufactured home communities** in Columbia, uniting affordability, modern amenities, and professional management. Through UMH Properties' commitment to quality, community, and service, every resident discovers more than housing—they gain a home where the beauty of the Duck River becomes part of daily life.

**Visit Duck River Estates today to check out rentals and homes for sale, and feel firsthand the UMH Properties' commitment to "Quality Homes. Strong Communities."**

'''