

A Complete Guide to Frontier Airlines at DFW Terminal

Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport (DFW) is one of the busiest airports in the United States, serving as a major hub for domestic and international flights. If you're traveling with Frontier Airlines, knowing the terminal details, amenities, and travel tips can make your journey smoother.

Frontier Airlines Terminal at DFW

Frontier Airlines operates from Terminal E at DFW Airport. Terminal E is primarily used by low-cost carriers and non-hub airlines, offering a streamlined travel experience. It is well-equipped with essential services and facilities to cater to Frontier passengers.

Check-in and Boarding

Check-in Options

Frontier Airlines provides multiple check-in options for passengers flying out of DFW:

- Online Check-in: Available 24 hours before departure via the Frontier Airlines website or mobile app.
- Airport Kiosks: Self-service kiosks are available at Terminal E for quick check-in and printing boarding passes.
- Check-in Counters: If you have checked baggage or need assistance, visit the Frontier check-in counters at Terminal E.

Boarding Process

- Arrive at the airport at least 2 hours before domestic flights.
- Frontier Airlines gates are located within Terminal E, with efficient security checkpoints nearby.
- Boarding typically begins 30-45 minutes before departure. As a budget airline, Frontier follows a zone-based boarding system.

Baggage Policy

Understanding Frontier Airlines' baggage policy can help you avoid unexpected fees.

Carry-On Baggage

- Personal Item (Free): Must fit under the seat in front of you (e.g., a small backpack or purse).
- Carry-On Bag (Paid): Must not exceed 24" x 16" x 10" and should fit in the overhead bin.

Checked Baggage

- Fees vary depending on the route and when you purchase the baggage allowance.
- Maximum weight limit: 40 lbs (18 kg).
- Oversized or overweight bags incur additional charges.

To save on baggage costs, it's best to purchase your baggage allowance online when booking your ticket.
